Dividends Due To Former Bank Depositors

A final dividend of 8% was paid April 15 to the old depositors of the former Bank of Grayling which closed its doors in 1932. The Peoples National Bank of Bay City paid the dividends for the assignee for the benefit of the creditors.

The last prior dividend paid was in 1948 and naturally since that time people have moved away, their names have been changed by marriage and some have left this world.

However, the Peoples Bank of Bay City has checks numbering 65 which they would like to assign to the assignee for the benefit of these people or determine who they should contact the Bay City bank. If these funds are not turned over to their rightful owners, money will go to the State of Michigan.

Following are the people for whom checks are being held:

He Drove The Big Wheels, Cut The Pine, Fished For The Grayling

By Marguerite Gahagan, Editor of the North Woods Call. This story appeared in the June 5, 1957 issue of that newspaper.

The wagon bounced along the rutted trail road, the sun on its cover warming the 12-year-old boy sitting inside with his 14-year-old brother, starting out at the great woods of the endless pine, the wilds of Michigan back in '79.

It was November and George A. Colleen was heading for a life-time in the north country.

He thought back to that November of '79 when he was a boy, home in Grayling, a 91-year-old veteran of the lumber camp, of the days when the virgin timber was hauled on

With Jack and Buck, the black and bay he'd gone down to Ohio to buy and broke himself to the big wheels.

George Colleen was a big wheel man. "Rather drive the wheels than do anything else in the woods," he said. But he'd done just about everything, started as a chore rapidly... in George... still the wonder... full days

north woods when Jack his prize horse... Dotted wheels he so loved to

Classroom "Contributions"

The debate over the Administration's controversial program for aid to the States for school construction has about reached its apex.

President Eisenhower met with opposition to the program at the Annual Conference of State Governors when he pleaded for his "temporary" federal program to meet the "critical" shortage of classrooms.

We too differ with the President on this program. An interesting analysis of how the burden of school financing would be shifted has been prepared by the United States Chamber of Commerce. It shows that 17 states and the District of Columbia would pay more in taxes than they would receive in benefits.

It is a curiosity that the beneficiaries include so many areas that are advertising low tax burdens to attract industry and are developing faster than the nation as a whole. North Carolina, which would be the biggest beneficiary by the Chamber's calculation, took a full page in the June 26 Wall Street Journal to proclaim "North Carolina Reduces Taxes".

This is no picture of "need" but of good local government dedicated to progress. But relieving North Carolina of educational costs at the expense, say, of New England textile centers or Michigan auto plants is hardly cricket.

What may be still more of an eye-opener to many taxpayers of the "rich" States is the appearance of Texas in the guise of a "poor" State scheduled under the bill to receive federal handouts for school construction. However, Texas' Governor Price Daniel made it clear at Williamsburg that his great State wants no federal funds to build its schools.

THINKING OUT LOUD!

Overheard near our produce department. "Do you summer in the country?"
"No! I summer in the city!"
There are many people who complain about the heat in town but wouldn't leave it for all the tea in China. Some enjoy the warm weather by relaxing with a tall glass of lemonade.

Use this quick, easy method of making better lemonade. No need to get out a squeezer, spill sugar, or endanger yourself with knives. Just open a can of fresh frozen lemonade, add the right amount of water, and serve.

It's a perfect thirst quencher, is enjoyed by both adults and children. This family drink fits in anywhere. Frozen lemonade is another cooler that is gaining many friends. Keep this one freezer for hot weather company... ready instantly.

I heard the other day that a diplomat is one who remembers a lady's birthday but forgets her age. A good homemaker is the world's best diplomat. Who knows better than she how to season foods to our taste? Who recognizes the right psychological moment to make a pot of coffee?

Who knows better than she how to stretch her grocery allowance by making all of her purchases at our store? We think she's pretty smart, too! That's why we give her quality, fresh fruits and vegetables and back them up with a money back guarantee. Customers are company at our store and we like lots of company. Come on down and get acquainted.

Know what's inside a TUBE STEAK. That's Next week's story.

46 YEARS AGO

August 3, 1911

The marriage of Miss Katherine Bates to Mr. Benjamin Jerome at the Methodist Episcopal Church last evening was one of the most delightful social events that has ever occurred in this city. Rev. A. R. Mitchell of Algonac was the officiating clergyman. The wedding party appeared at the east entrance as Mendelssohn's wedding march sounded, played by Arthur Fournier, of Royal Oak. As the groom came forward to meet the bride, a solo, "O Perfect Love," was sung by Miss Katherine McPeak. Mr. Otto Pokorny of Detroit and Mr. Fred Welsh of Reed City, acted as ushers. Miss Lillian Bates as maid of honor, and Miss Mildred Bates as ring bearer. The groom was attended by his brother, George Jerome. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jerome received nearly two hundred of their friends in Danebod Hall. They left on the morning train for Mackinac Island, from which point they leave soon for a trip on the lakes. They will be at home after September 1st at Grand Rapids.

Ex-Sheriff Amidon is building a cement block house on the farm of D. Kneht, about 5 miles down the river.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Michelson spent Sunday at Lovells; guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kuehl.

Carl Sorenson, who has been employed at Scott Loader's barber shop for some time, left this week for Ypsilanti where he will be engaged in similar work. Jake Collins of Linden, will take his place here with Mr. Loader.

The miscellaneous shower given last Friday night by Mrs. Olaf Sorenson in honor of Miss Katherine Bates was a genuine affair. Vines made to represent cucumber vines, to which were fastened various presents, each wrapped to form a shape and appearance of a cucumber were formed throughout the house. The recipient had to pick the presents and found enough "cucumbers" no doubt to start any couple out with plenty of pickles. It was an enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Ostrander, living near Cheney, Mich., received an invitation to an Ostrander family reunion to be held at Belle Isle Park August 16th.

There is an exhibition in Lewis and Co.'s drug-store a rainbow caught my Dr. Crumrine recently at Stephen's resort. A sizable river it weighed five pounds and measured 23 1/2 inches.

Cederberg Asks Budget Reforms

Congressman Clifford A. Cederberg has introduced legislation calling for the establishment of a special House committee to study and make recommendations aimed at strengthening Congressional control over the public purse. The resolution calls for a 10-man bi-partisan committee.

"The time has come," Congressman Cederberg said "when Congress must conduct a searching self-analysis of the organization, procedures and methods by which it reviews and authorizes the annual budget as submitted by the President.

"It has become increasingly clear in the battle over the fiscal 1958 budget that means must be found to enable Congress to perform more effectively its review of the budget.

Representative Cederberg added that individual Congressmen had "indicated a scarcity of information regarding facts behind the budget" and pointed out that the House already had requested the President to make recommendations as to where specific budget cuts could be made.

The resolution, if approved, would direct the committee to give particular attention to four phases:

1. The existing fiscal machinery and appropriations procedures of Congress.
2. Present methods of controlling public expenditures.
3. Possible defects of present budgetary practices.
4. Proposed reforms in budgetary procedures.

meetings read and approved. The new construction project on the north Down River road was discussed and the Commissioners accompanied by Supt. Carlson made a trip of inspection to the job.

Grayling, Frederic and Maple Forest Township roads were also visited by the group. After returning to their office a motion was made and supported to adjourn. All voted in favor, motion carried, meeting adjourned.

BOY SCOUTS REPORT ON JAMBOREE TRIP

We arose the first morning, and traveled by bus to Niagara Falls, where we toured the Canadian side of the falls. Then we camped at Hyde Park in Niagara Falls, N. York. The next morning we arose at 5:30 to eat, pack and load the bus for the journey to Washington D. C., where we ate supper and set up camp.

The next two days were spent touring Washington, D. C. We visited the Washington Monument, the White House, the Capitol building, the Lincoln Memorial, the Smithsonian Institute, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Arlington Memorial Cemetery, and Mount Vernon. On the third day at 5:30 we moved out. We then went on to Gettysburg. We then journeyed on to Jamboree where we set up camp. The next day we finished setting up camp and constructed a border of red and white sash flags on top of 20 feet high poles. The afternoon was spent in the arena for the opening ceremony. Saturday afternoon we had a picnic. At 11:00 a. m. again until 4:00. In the evening we went to a section of the arena.

Sunday morning some boys went to Episcopal Communion and at 6:30 Catholic Masses were held for the Catholic boys. The rest of the boys got up and ate breakfast. At nine o'clock services were held in the arena for 40,000 Protestant boys. The rest of the day was spent visiting other campsites. In the evening we had a quiet campfire after which we turned in.

The next four days were about the same. We arose, ate, and had free time until noon. After lunch the boys had more free time. In the evening we went to troop and sectional campfires. The last night we went to the big arena for the closing ceremony.

Friday morning we left camp and that night we stayed at the Akron Naval Air Base. We arose the next morning and journeyed on home.
